MRS. RICHARD R. JOHNSON
the former Miss Sarah Debrelle Thomas

Wed In Double Ring Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Sarah Debrelle Thomas to Richard Rogers Johnson took place at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon in Calvary Baptist Church, Concord.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Alton Thomas of Spout Spring, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. James Thomas Johnson, of Suffolk, and the late Mr. Johnson.

The Rev. Frank Casper, pastor of the church, officiated at the double ring ceremony. He was assisted by John Wayne Stevens of Wake Forest, N.C., Chaplain U.S.N., and seminary student at Wake Forest.

Miss Linda Smith, of North Garden, organist, and Harvey Mays, of Amherst, soloist, cousin of the bride, provided a program of nuptial music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of chiffon over taffeta. The gown featured a stand up collar and lace bodice with unlined set-in sleeves which were gathered to wide cuffs covered in silk Alencon lace and lace trimmed detachable train. The finger tip veil was attached to a crescent of bridal lace. She carried a Victorian nosegay of white roses and mums.

Miss Harrie Kay Thomas, of Spout Spring, was her sister's maid of honor and Mrs. Dennis Wayne Torrence of Appomattox, her sister's matron of honor. Other attendants were, Mrs. Larry Elliott Torrence, of Newark, N.J., Mrs. John Wayne Stevens, of Wake Forest, N.C., and Miss Jacque Lynn Stallings of Suffolk, Va. They wore gowns of lavendar chiffon overtaffeta, and white garden hats and carried nosegays of lavendar mums.

Little Eidith Saecker of Suffolk, was flower girl and Jeffrey Thomas of Madison Heights was ring bearer.

James Rogers, of Suffolk, uncle of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were George Gatling, Jr., Mills Saecker and Thomas Woodward, Jr., all of Suffolk, and Eric Seidel, of Norfolk.

Following the ceremony, the bride's parents were hosts for a reception in the church social hall.

The bride is a graduate of Appomattox High School and Madison College, where she received a BS in elementary education. She is employed by the Nansemond County school system.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Suffolk High School and Frederick College in Maryland and has done post-graduate work at Old Dominion University in Norfolk. He is a staff member of Chamberlayne and Laskey, C.P.A.'s of Norfolk.

For her going away outfit the bride wore an aqua silk crepe dress with coat to match, white picture hat and accessories and white gardenias from her bridal bouquet.

After a wedding trip to Nassau and Florida, the couple will live in Suffolk.

MRS. JAMES WYMAN HOLDER
the former Miss Sarah Ruff Braford

Braford-Holder Wedding

Pleasant Ridge Presbyterian Church in Cincinnati, Ohio was the setting Saturday afternoon, August fourteenth, for the marriage of Miss Sarah Ruff Braford, to James Wyman Holder, son of Mrs. Wyman James Holder of Evansville, Indiana. The double ring candlelight ceremony was performed by the Reverend Clyde O. Dawson officiating the service. A reception was held in the Kenton Room of the church.

For the marriage by her father the bride wore a chapel length gown of ivory silk organza and re-embroidered Alencon lace. The empire bodice was fashioned with a high Victorian neckline and lace tapered sleeves that came at the wrist. Floral motifs of the lace appeared on the bodice and the front. A deep border of lace accented the hemline of the detachable chapel length train. On her hair, she wore a mantilla of matching alencon-silk illusion, and carried a crescent bouquet of gardenias and Stephanotis, and baby's breath.

Miss Sarah Staten was her attendant of honor and Mrs. Wyman Holder, sister of the bridesmaid. The attendant wore matching gown of gold chiffon softly draped in empire bodice of gold, green, and brown with an ivory inset. Long full sleeves. She carried three long stemmed amber roses with yellow streamers. Matching amber roses adorned their hair.

Mr. Norman of Cleveland was the best man and Mr. John S. Braford, brother of the bride was the groomsman. Mr. Brown double breasted tuxedos with black trim and flair slacks were worn by all of the men in the wedding party.

The bride is a graduate of Madison College, Harrisonburg, Virginia where she received a Bachelor of Science degree in Institutional Management. She has completed the Dietetic internship program from the University of Cincinnati Medical Center. The groom is a graduate of the College of Arts and Sciences of the University of Cincinnati and is a member of Delta Tau Delta Fraternity. He is currently a graduate student in the department of Biological Chemistry, in the graduate school of the College of Arts and Sciences, Un. of Cincinnati where he is finishing requirements for a Ph. D. degree.

The couple will enjoy a two week honeymoon in Puerto Rico before returning to Cincinnati.

Torrences Visit Former Resident

Mr. and Mrs. Lank Torrence recently visited Mrs. Mary E. Turner at Wolftown Mill, Madison, Va. Mrs. Turner is the former manager of Spring Mills (now privately owned and no longer open to the public).

Mrs. Turner has again cleaned up and refurbished an old mill near Madison. She has on display authentic "Gay Nineties" memorabilia, including old Valentines, lace fans, dolls and other items of the period. In addition, the Wolftown Mill offers visitors a look at old-time milling machinery, old lamps, a rocking chair on the porch of the mill and a view of the unusually beautiful countryside in that area of the foothills of the Blue Ridge Mountains. Mrs. Turner plans to offer gifts and craft items for sale at Wolftown as she did at Spring Mills, including art and craftwork from Appomattox people.

She says that the people of the Madison area offers the same type of friendly cooperation which she found in Appomattox-Campbell counties. She has already been featured on a radio interview about the Wolftown Mill.

Mr. and Mrs. Torrence, who worked closely with her in the development of the Spring Mills Museum, report that Mrs. Turner says "hello" to all the friends and acquaintances here who helped make her stay in Appomattox county a pleasant one.

Mr. and Mrs. Torrence also visited Chuckatuck and Newport News, Va. during a recent trip.
